NOTICE OF APPEAL AND STATEMENT OF ELECTION TO HAVE APPEAL HEARD BY THE DISTRICT COURT

21
22 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that victims of the Camp Fire represented 23 by this law firm in the above-referenced bankruptcy case (“Appellants”) hereby 24 appeal from the Order Confirming Debtors’ and Shareholder Proponents’ Joint 25 Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization Dated June 19, 2020 [Bankr. Dkt. No. 8053], 26 entered on June 20, 2020 and effective on July 1, 2020 (the “Confirmation 27 Order”), which incorporates the Fire Victim Trust Agreement and exhibits,

1 including the Fire Victim Claims Resolution Procedures, as filed with the Court
2 on June 21, 2020 [Bankr. Dkt. No. 8057].

3 The Confirmation Order is a final order of the Bankruptcy Court. A copy
4 of the Conformation Order is attached hereto as Exhibit A. A copy of the Fire
5 Victim Trust Agreement and all exhibits is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

6 This appeal is directed to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, as provided
7 by 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2); F.R.A.P. 5; and 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2)(A). In a separate 8 filing, Appellants will request the Bankruptcy Court to approve and certify this 9 direct appeal and provide notice to the Bankruptcy Court of Appellants petition 10 filed with the circuit clerk.

11 The central issue of the appeal involves a question of law to which 12 there is no binding precedent. For this reason, review by a bankruptcy 13 appellate panel or district court would waste precious time and resources, and 14 only delay the inevitable decision on an issue of first-impression. Thus, direct 15 appeal materially advances the progress of the case. In addition, several 16 questions of law to be presented, as well as mixed questions of fact and law, 17 involve matters of great public importance.

18 Counsel for the Debtors, the Tort Claimants Committee, the pre-petition
19 shareholders, and the Fire Victim Trustee all participated in the confirmation 20 hearing. In an abundance of caution, the Reorganized Debtors are also listed as 21 Appellees. Those parties and the names, addresses and telephone numbers of 22 their respective attorneys are:
